Susan Ball is the primary legal advisor to Cross Country Healthcare's CEO and board of directors, overseeing corporate governance, securities matters, risk management, workers' compensation, insurance, litigation, mergers and acquisitions, and leadership on certain operational matters. Prior to practicing law, she was a registered nurse, which gives her unique insight into the legal matters facing a healthcare staffing company. Cross Country Healthcare is the third-largest healthcare staffing firm in the US.

Marisa Zaharoff has managed Cross Country Healthcare's per diem branch network since 2014 and was named President of Cross Country Healthcare's Per Diem Staffing Division in January of 2018. Under her leadership, the company's per diem division, Medical Staffing Network, has leaped to the top spot on SIAs' list of largest per diem nursing firms in the US with seven percent market share. She also has a background in nursing prior to her healthcare staffing experience.

"We are extremely proud that both Susan and Marisa were recognized on SIAs'
