Kevin C. Clark, Co-founder and CEO, Cross Country Healthcare

An acknowledgment of exceptional leadership, commitment and resilience, this year's Staffing 100 list recognizes a group of professionals who in unprecedented times are unwavering in the support they have shown for their businesses, teams, talent and clients. The CEOs, entrepreneurs, technologists, operational experts, workforce specialists, innovators and more who comprise the list are doing what it takes to ensure success for the industry through their business practices, processes, philosophies and people-first mindsets.

"Congratulations to the 2021 Staffing 100 North America honorees. These leaders have displayed tremendous skill and resourcefulness amidst the uncertainty and volatility of the past year, meeting the moment with grace and agility," said Subadhra Sriram, Editor & Publisher, Media Products, SIA. "From the deployment of healthcare workers to needed allyship at a time when diversity matters most to launching new solutions, these leaders are helping the industry to reach greater heights."

"I'm honored to be recognized by SIA for our achievements during such a tumultuous year," says Kevin C. Clark, co-founder and CEO of Cross Country Healthcare. "Additionally, many of our critical objectives could not have been accomplished without the insight and direction of Stephen Saville. His inclusion on the list is a testament to his ability to ensure our agility throughout this volatile period."

The Staffing 100 website, which includes the 2021 North American, Latin American and Hall of Fame lists, debuted in February. Those named to the lists are being honored during SIA's Executive Forum North America: New Strategies for a New World in March. The list is also featured in the January/February 2021 issue of Staffing Industry Review magazine.
