

Cross Country Healthcare Names Craig Hoven SVP, Managing Consultant of Cejka Search

July 13, 2022

BOCA RATON, Fla.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jul. 13, 2022-- Cross Country Healthcare, Inc., a market-leading workforce solutions, tech-enabled talent platform, and staffing, recruitment, and advisory firm, today announced that Craig Hoven has joined the organization as senior vice president and managing consultant of Cejka Search, the organization's executive search division.

"We are excited to have Craig join our Cejka Search team as he brings a wealth of knowledge, healthcare expertise, and strong relationships to our already existing network," said Buffy White, Group President, Workforce Solutions. "His skill in identifying and connecting talented C-level executives, physician leaders, key senior management members and academic medicine faculty with our healthcare facility partners nationwide comes at a crucial time in the industry given the executive movements and open needs across systems we are seeing," White added.

Hoven will lead all aspects of the executive search process, including candidate recruitment and interviewing, development of effective client/candidate relationships, client/candidate management, and candidate placement. Hoven brings more than two decades of healthcare staffing leadership experience to his new role.

"I am honored to join such a renowned, innovative leader in the industry like Cross Country, and I look forward to helping them deliver executives equipped to solve the complex challenges many organizations face in today's transformative healthcare landscape," said Hoven.
