CROSS COUNTRY HEALTHCARE COMMENTS ON MEDSTAFF LEGAL MATTER

BOCA RATON, Fla. – March 4, 2005 – Cross Country Healthcare, Inc. (Nasdaq: CCRN) said today its MedStaff, Inc. subsidiary is the subject of a purported class action lawsuit filed on February 18, 2005 in the Superior Court of California in Riverside County. The lawsuit relates only to MedStaff corporate employees. It alleges violations of certain sections of the California Labor Code, the California Business and Professions Code, conversion and accounting, and recovery of unpaid wages and penalties. MedStaff currently has less than 50 corporate employees in California.

The plaintiffs, Maureen Petray and Carina Higareda, who purport to sue on behalf of themselves and all others similarly situated, allege that MedStaff failed under California law to provide meal period and rest breaks and pay for those missed meal periods and rest breaks; failed to compensate the employees for all hours worked; failed to compensate the employees for working overtime; and failed to keep appropriate records to keep track of time worked.

Plaintiffs seek, among other things, an order enjoining MedStaff from engaging in the practices challenged in the complaint; for an order for full restitution of all monies MedStaff allegedly failed to pay Plaintiffs and their purported class; for interest; for certain penalties provided for by the California Labor Code; and for attorneys' fees and costs.

The lawsuit is in its very early stages and has not yet been certified by the court as a class action. At this time, the Company is investigating these claims and is unable to determine its potential exposure, if any, and intends to vigorously defend this matter.

Cross Country Healthcare, Inc. is a leading provider of healthcare staffing services in the United States.
