Cross Country Healthcare's Vickie Anenberg, President of Cross Country Staffing named to SIA's Global Power 100

BOCA RATON, Fla., Nov. 4, 2016 /PRNewswire/ -- Cross Country Healthcare, Inc. is proud to announce that Vickie Anenberg, President of their Nurse and Allied division, was named to the Staffing Industry Analysts (SIA) Global Power 100, North American 50 - Women in Staffing list for 2016.

The full list, now in its second year, was announced on October 31, 2016. SIA points out that the Global Power 100 is not a ranking, but really a true acknowledgement of those whose exceptional vision and contributions take the staffing industry forward. The final selection is based on the influence and achievements of the women nominated.

Ms. Anenberg has worked with Cross Country Healthcare for 25 years. She has served as president from 2002 to 2005 and again beginning in 2012 to the present. She credits her success to two key drivers: the talent and passion of the dedicated Cross Country team and Cross Country's commitment to be the leader in quality... never letting the Organization lose sight of the fact that the central focus of the healthcare industry must always be the patient. "Being able to work with the best hospitals and clinicians in the country, who change lives at the bedside, gives me the passion and drive to always find ways to improve our operations and strengthen our differentiating quality," Anenberg explains.

Cross Country Healthcare's President and CEO, Bill Grubbs further states, "Vickie has always been such a strong presence in our organization. Her insight and guidance provides the leadership that our company and the industry needs to advance."

"It's an honor and a privilege to be listed amongst all these strong, intelligent and driven women. I am particularly proud to be the executive to bring recognition to this passionate and powerful Cross Country organization," says Anenberg.
