Country Healthcare's business units," commented Mr. Grubbs.

Senior Vice President, Recruiting Strategy & Operations is a newly created role for the company that is designed to oversee and manage the entire recruitment process, from candidate attraction to placement. As SVP of Recruiting Strategy & Operations, Ms. White will be responsible for driving increased candidate flow and operational efficiencies, working closely with the business unit presidents and their teams.

Ms. White brings a broad range of strategic and tactical knowledge in service delivery, process engineering, business process improvement, change management and dynamic team building. She joins Cross Country Healthcare from Pontoon, a division of Adecco, where she held the title of Executive Vice President, Global Services and Solutions Consulting. While serving in various leadership and management roles, Ms. White gained extensive experience in designing, developing and managing high-performance, high-growth organizations.

"We are thrilled to have Buffy join our organization. I am confident in her capabilities to develop a comprehensive strategy for how the company attracts, recruits and manages candidates throughout their lifecycle with us. She will focus on developing innovative and efficient recruitment practices for all of Cross
