Under the leadership of Mr. Grubbs, Cross Country Healthcare has continued to grow in revenue, organizational structure, locations and service offerings. The organization is proud that these accomplishments are being recognized by our industry and that our leaders stand out amongst the vast pool of firms and their workers. The SIA list is not just about size and revenue, but more importantly, it focuses on the individuals who have worked hard to take the staffing industry to the next level — those who have influenced it in big and small ways.

Staffing insiders and observers nominate men and women from all sectors of the industry for the chance to be chosen for this prestigious recognition. The Staffing Industry Analysts editorial team then reviews the nominations and makes the final determination of those individuals who have in some way affected the world of contingent work and influenced people's perception of talent and how it can be used.

During the week of February 22, 2016, Mr. Grubbs as well as Dennis Ducham, President of Mediscan, a newly acquired Cross Country Healthcare company, represented the organization at the annual SIA Executive Forum in Phoenix, Arizona.
